MEMORANDUM FOR FILE

SUBJECT: W917PM-07-R-0078, 79 and 80 Pre-Solicitation Meeting 7 June 2007

A Pre-solicitation meeting for solicitations W917PM-07-R-0078, 79 and 80 held on 7 June 2007 at USACE HQ in Kabul. Representing the Government were Contract Specialists Stella Lejeune, Debra Scott and James Sinclair. Fifteen companies were represented at the meeting. A presentation was made that encapsulated the major points of the RFPs. The major points covered were the LPTA method of competition for the solicitations, explanation of the Price and Non-Price factors and procedures for submission of proposals. Following the presentation some points were clarified in an open question and answer period as follows:

Points:

1. CCR registration is required for US companies only.
2. DBA Insurance costs should be spread over the proposal line items rather than being presented as a lump sum line item.
3. Security costs should be spread over the line items rather than being lumped.

Questions:

1. Are Afghan companies favored in the solicitation? No, these are open competitions to all.
2. How should the pricing and non-pricing sections of the solicitations be submitted?
Submit pricing and non-pricing sections separated from each other and in one package.
3. Why don't we hear the results of some solicitations? All Offerors are notified when award is made. Some solicitations are delayed or not awarded at all.
4. If my company bids on several solicitations and is awarded more than we can perform what shall we do? State on your proposals your company would be limited in performing more than a certain number of solicitations at one time.
